

TECHNICAL SERVICES ENGINEER (OVERHAUL)

Responsibilities

- Provide work scope and work instructions to be performed on an engine, module, component or part, and condition reports of technical investigation or shop visit reports prior to engine dispatch
- Evaluate Airworthiness Directives documents and translate it to local technical documents and work instruction for compliance
- Issue engine test instructions stipulating the scope and extent of testing to be performed and carry out troubleshooting of engine testing problems
- Carry out investigation of engines rejected from service
- Evaluate defective parts for potential serviceability and raise Technical Variance documents to Rolls-Royce for acceptance or repair
- Liaise with Customer Business and local Rolls Royce field service office on the maintenance activities required to be performed on an engine, module, component or part

Requirement

- Degree in Mechanical/Aerospace Engineering
- Good knowledge of high bypass gas turbine engines
- Good communication skill and able to multi-task

\(Only short-listed candidates will be notified\)