

Senior/ Business Improvement Executive

Responsibilities

- Engage business leaders to define the improvement strategy in line with the company's requirements for achieving the long term business success
- Coach project leaders in deploying lean / six sigma improvement techniques to improve the flow and efficiency in Operations
- Enhance and govern the project prioritization mechanism, to ensure resources are allocated to business priorities
- Identify and facilitate process improvement workshops to drive cultural change
- Perform maturity assessment in company and process level as well as work with process owners in enhancing process maturity
- Improve the yellow belt project mechanism and support the business in realizing small incremental basic improvements from the ground-up
- Manage improvement / production system framework. Seek the best practices from the RR AMC network and aviation industry and drive implementation in SAESL
- Deliver improvement trainings for new recruits and internal staff
- Review budgetary expenditure and seek opportunities for cost reduction

Requirements

- Degree/ Diploma in any discipline with at least 3 years of relevant experience in Continuous Improvement and project management
- Experience in delivering Lean/ DMAIC improvement projects within Operational and transactional environment
- Experience in delivering training and facilitating workshop activities

- Process and system thinking, awareness of ISO9001 requirements would be an advantage
- Relevant experience in Aviation sector would be an advantage
- Ability to carry out project and training independently. Self-motivated and able to work under pressure
- Excellent communication skills both written and verbal

(Only short-listed candidates will be notified)