

Business Improvement Specialist

Responsibilities

- Engage senior business leaders to define the improvement strategy in line with the company's future growth within a dynamic business environment
- Lead major projects to transform the business model, supporting both current and near term operational improvements and future strategic programs that deliver new MRO capabilities to be business
- Develop internal talents to embark on improvement journey by coaching project leaders in deploying lean / six sigma improvement techniques to improve flow and efficiency
- Equip SAESL employees with Lean/ six sigma knowledge and support the business in realizing and sustaining incremental improvements

Requirements

- Degree in engineering / business discipline with at least 5 years of relevant industrial experience in Continuous Improvement and change management
- Experience in delivering significant cost benefits utilising Lean / SixSigma framework within an Operational / Industrial environment, preferably with BlackBelt Certification
- Preferable to have experience in delivering training and facilitating workshop activities
- Excellent communication skills in written / verbal English and graphical analysis

(Only short-listed candidates will be notified)