

Manager, Programs (Repair Development)

Responsibilities

- Clearly define the program scope and project deliverables to meet both external and internal customer requirements
- Define key success criteria and benefits for the program and translate them in to measurable KPIs
- Manage change control to the program scope and ensure effective communication to both internal and external stakeholders
- Establish and maintain program governance controls at working level, managerial level and senior leadership level
- Prepare regular and timely updates to SAESL senior leadership team on progress and challenges
- Identify and drive closure of resourcing or capability gaps together with the Engineering leadership team
- Provide project management guidance and support to the team of Integrated Project Team Leaders and Project Engineers
- Track and report project delivery and budget performance in line with the baseline commitments
- When required, deep dive in to project related issues to provide timely resolution and a route for escalation
- Improve program management processes and tools to increase efficiencies of program & project management disciplines

Requirements

- Bachelor's Degree with at least 5 years' working experience
- Knowledge of Gas Turbine Engine industry preferred
- Project Management professional certification preferred

- Excellent communication and organization skills
- Good problem solver and ability to think on feet
- Able to effectively manage and communicate across functions and at different levels of the organization

(Only short-listed candidates will be notified)