

Culture building is increasingly important in SAESL with the deployment of High Performance Culture programme. This role is required to effectively engage employees and influence behavioural changes, dedicated resources are required to run HPC engagement sessions reinforcement sessions as well as execution of cultural transformation projects.

CULTURAL FACILITATOR

Responsibilities

- Deliver high performance culture programmes and events
- Raise employee awareness of high performance culture through educational material and media content
- Spearhead the design and execution of cultural transformation projects
- Identify and train supporting facilitators from various departments
- Provides periodic reports of the culture programmes and events
- Support other HR activities as needed

Requirement

- Degree in any discipline
- Experience in facilitating or conducting training for diverse range of employees
- Strong facilitation skill and excellent communication skills
- Charismatic influencer
- Ability to establish good relationships