

Manager, Commercial Management and Customer Business (CR)

Responsibilities

- Assisting in the control, administration, ownership and accountability of all activities of the Commercial Management and Customer Business (Component Repair) Department
- Supports VP Customer Business and Procurement to achieve relevant departmental and company objectives
- Developing and delivering a standard of customer support that meets and exceeds the expectations of the Company's customers, and building and maintaining these customer relationships so as to ensure world-class services and support in all aspects of the Company's business
- Negotiating and securing contracts and business commitments on terms that meet the Company's financial and project objectives
- Promoting and ensuring compliance with, the requirements of the Company's SMS within his/her work area

Requirements

- Provide leadership to his/her first line of reportees in fulfilling the company's HSE obligations as required under the law, OHSAS 18001 and ISO14001;
- Ensure appropriate resources are applied to implement the HSE Management Systems so that processes in the areas of responsibilities are verified, monitored and reviewed for hazards and control measures are implemented to mitigate the risks.