

Training Specialist

Responsibilities

- Manage the training team and maintain high quality standard for training delivery
- Define the requirements for an on-site training academy to upskill cohorts of technicians in the basic competencies required for engine strip / build and component repair
- Programme manage the a cost effective infrastructure & documentation required to support an on-site training academy
- Review and improve the training framework and re-accreditation structure in line with regulatory requirements and best practice from the aerospace network
- Work closely with and engage the operations teams to develop training modules
- Schedule adhoc audit of training programmes and records to ensure effectiveness and high quality of training programme.
- Deliver and share best practice training standards to other parts of the business
- Review budgetary spend & seek opportunities for reducing costs

Requirement

- Experience in delivering technical training to technical staff
- Experience in managing teams and their performance
- Excellent communication skills both written and verbal

(Only short-listed candidates will be notified)